

Statistics for the SDGs - indicators for national priorities

Methodological explanations  The agricultural land area includes area of agricultural land in a good agricultural condition and other agricultural land. Agricultural land in a good agricultural condition - maintained in accordance with norms meeting requirements of the Law of 5 II 2015 on payments under direct support schemes (uniform text Journal of Laws 2015 item 1551) include sown area, fallow land, permanent crops (including orchards), kitchen gardens, permanent meadows and permanent pastures.  Other agricultural land is agricultural land which is not used and maintained in a good condition.  Data on the total agricultural land area do not include land of owners of agricultural land who do not conduct agricultural activities, and land of owners of less than 1 ha of agricultural land who conduct agricultural activities on a small scale (below specific thresholds).  Data source  Chief Inspection of Agricultural and Food Quality / Statistics Poland  Data availability  Annual data; since 2010  In accordance with gradual changes in the methodology of agricultural surveys, introduced since 2010 in order to adjust it to EU standards and encompass changes taking place in the Polish agriculture, the definition of the agricultural farm has been changed. In accordance with the definition binding since 2010, agricultural surveys do not include owners of agricultural land who do not conduct agricultural activities, and	Name of the indicator	12.2.a Share of certified agricultural land area of organic farms in total agricultural land area of farms
Definition		Goal 12. Responsible consumption and production
Organic farm uses organic methods of agricultural production, and has a certificate granted to it by a certification body or is under conversion to organic methods of agricultural production under control of a certification body.  The certification bodies for organic farming are bodies which, by the decision of the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development, have been authorized to carrying out inspections and issuing and revoking a certificate of conformity with regard to organic agriculture (Law of 25 June 2009 on organic farming, Journal of Laws No. 116, item 975).  Organic agricultural land is land where the organic methods of agricultural production are implemented. The area of certified organic agricultural land in organic holdings covers agricultural land area whose conversion to organic agricultural condition are implemented. The area of certified organic agricultural land in a good agricultural condition are implemented. The area of certified organic agricultural land in a good agricultural condition are implemented. The area of certified organic agricultural land in a good agricultural condition are implements under direct support schemes (uniform text Journal of Laws 2015 item 1651) include sown area, fallow land, permanent crops (including orchards), kitchen gardens, permanent meadows and permanent pastures.  Other agricultural land is agricultural land which is not used and maintained in a good condition.  Data on the total agricultural activities, and land of owners of less than 1 ha of agricultural land who conduct agricultural activities on a small scale (below specific thresholds).  Data source  Chief Inspection of Agricultural and Food Quality / Statistics Poland  Annual data; since 2010  In accordance with gradual changes in the methodology of agricultural surveys, introduced since 2010 in order to adjust it to EU standards and encompass changes taking place in the Polish agriculture, the definition binding since 2010 agricultural surveys do not include owners of agricultural land who cond	Priority	Development of ecological agriculture
Available dimentions  total  Organic farm uses organic methods of agricultural production, and has a certificate granted to it by a certification body or is under conversion to organic methods of agricultural production under control of a certification body.  The certification bodies for organic farming are bodies which, by the decision of the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development, have been authorized to carrying out inspections and issuing and revoking a certificate of conformity with regard to organic agriculture (Law of 25 June 2009 on organic farming, Journal of Laws No. 116, item 975).  Organic agricultural land is land where the organic methods of agricultural production are implemented. The area of certified organic agricultural land in organic holdings covers agricultural land area whose conversion to organic agriculture has been finished.  The agricultural land area whose conversion to organic agricultural base en finished.  The agricultural land area includes area of agricultural land in a good agricultural condition and other agricultural land. Agricultural land in a good agricultural condition and other agricultural land, permanent crops (including orchards), kitchen gardens, permanent meadows and permanent pastures.  Other agricultural land is agricultural land which is not used and maintained in a good condition.  Data on the total agricultural agricultural and which is not used and maintained in a good condition.  Data on the total agricultural agricultural activities on a small scale (below specific thresholds).  Data source  Chief Inspection of Agricultural and Food Quality / Statistics Poland  Annual data; since 2010  In accordance with gradual changes in the methodology of agricultural surveys, introduced since 2010 in order to adjust it to EU standards and encompass changes taking place in the Polish agriculture, the definition of the agricultural activities, and owners of less than 1 ha of agricultural land who conduct agricultural activities on a smal scale (below the specified th	Definition
Organic farm uses organic methods of agricultural production, and has a certificate granted to it by a certification body or is under conversion to organic methods of agricultural production under control of a certification body.  The certification bodies for organic farming are bodies which, by the decision of the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development, have been authorized to carrying out inspections and issuing and revoking a certificate of conformity with regard to organic agriculture (Law of 25 June 2009 on organic farming, Journal of Laws No. 116, item 975).  Organic agricultural land is land where the organic methods of agricultural production are implemented. The area of certified organic agricultural land in organic holdings covers agricultural land area whose conversion to organic agriculture has been finished.  The agricultural land area includes area of agricultural land in a good agricultural condition and other agricultural land. Agricultural land in a good agricultural condition and other agricultural land. Agricultural land in a good agricultural condition and other agricultural land, permanent crops (including orchards), kitchen gardens, permanent meadows and permanent pastures.  Other agricultural land is agricultural land which is not used and maintained in a good condition.  Data on the total agricultural activities, and land of owners of less than 1 ha of agricultural land who conduct agricultural activities on a small scale (below specific thresholds).  Data availability  Annual data; since 2010  In accordance with gradual changes in the methodology of agricultural surveys, introduced since 2010 in order to adjust it to EU standards and encompass changes taking place in the Polish agricultural the definition of the agricultural farm has been changed. In accordance with the definition of the agricultural activities, and owners of less than 1 ha of agricultural land who do not conduct agricultural activities, and owners of less than 1 ha of agricultural land who conduct agricultural a	Unit	percent [%]
granted to it by a certification body or is under conversion to organic methods of agricultural production under control of a certification body.  The certification bodies for organic farming are bodies which, by the decision of the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development, have been authorized to carrying out inspections and issuing and revoking a certificate of conformity with regard to organic agriculture (Law of 25 June 2009 on organic farming, Journal of Laws No. 116, item 975).  Organic agricultural land is land where the organic methods of agricultural production are implemented. The area of certified organic agricultural land in organic holdings covers agricultural land area whose conversion to organic agriculture has been finished.  The agricultural land area includes area of agricultural land in a good agricultural condition and other agricultural land. Agricultural land in a good agricultural condition and other agricultural land. Agricultural land in a good agricultural condition maintained in accordance with norms meeting requirements of the Law of 5 II 2015 on payments under direct support schemes (uniform text Journal of Laws 2016 item 1551) include sown area, fallow land, permanent crops (including orchards), kitchen gardens, permanent meadows and permanent pastures.  Other agricultural land is agricultural land which is not used and maintained in a good condition.  Data on the total agricultural land area do not include land of owners of agricultural land who do not conduct agricultural activities, and land of owners of less than 1 ha of agricultural activities on a small scale (below specific thresholds).  Data source  Chief Inspection of Agricultural and Food Quality / Statistics Poland  Annual data; since 2010  In accordance with gradual changes in the methodology of agricultural surveys, introduced since 2010 in order to adjust it to EU standards and encompass changes taking place in the Polish agricultura, the definition of the agricultural tarm has been changed. In accordance with th	Available dimentions	total
Data availability  Annual data; since 2010  In accordance with gradual changes in the methodology of agricultural surveys, introduced since 2010 in order to adjust it to EU standards and encompass changes taking place in the Polish agriculture, the definition of the agricultural farm has been changed. In accordance with the definition binding since 2010, agricultural surveys do not include owners of agricultural land who do not conduct agricultural activities, and owners of less than 1 ha of agricultural land who conduct agricultural activities on a small scale (below the specified thresholds).  Data updated on  25-02-2025	explanations	granted to it by a certification body or is under conversion to organic methods of agricultural production under control of a certification body.  The certification bodies for organic farming are bodies which, by the decision of the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Development, have been authorized to carrying out inspections and issuing and revoking a certificate of conformity with regard to organic agriculture (Law of 25 June 2009 on organic farming, Journal of Laws No. 116, item 975).  Organic agricultural land is land where the organic methods of agricultural production are implemented. The area of certified organic agricultural land in organic holdings covers agricultural land area whose conversion to organic agriculture has been finished.  The agricultural land area includes area of agricultural land in a good agricultural condition and other agricultural land. Agricultural land in a good agricultural condition maintained in accordance with norms meeting requirements of the Law of 5 II 2015 on payments under direct support schemes (uniform text Journal of Laws 2015 item 1551) include sown area, fallow land, permanent crops (including orchards), kitchen gardens, permanent meadows and permanent pastures.  Other agricultural land is agricultural land which is not used and maintained in a good condition.  Data on the total agricultural land area do not include land of owners of agricultural land who do not conduct agricultural activities, and land of owners of less than 1 ha of agricultural land who conduct agricultural activities on a small scale (below specific thresholds).
In accordance with gradual changes in the methodology of agricultural surveys, introduced since 2010 in order to adjust it to EU standards and encompass changes taking place in the Polish agriculture, the definition of the agricultural farm has been changed. In accordance with the definition binding since 2010, agricultural surveys do not include owners of agricultural land who do not conduct agricultural activities, and owners of less than 1 ha of agricultural land who conduct agricultural activities on a sma scale (below the specified thresholds).  Data updated on  25-02-2025		, , introduced since 2010 in order to adjust it to EU standards and encompass changes taking place in the Polish agriculture, the definition of the agricultural farm has been changed. In accordance with the definition binding since 2010, agricultural surveys do not include owners of agricultural land who do not conduct agricultural activities, and owners of less than 1 ha of agricultural land who conduct agricultural activities on a sma scale (below the specified thresholds).  Data updated on  25-02-2025	Data availability
•	Notes	introduced since 2010 in order to adjust it to EU standards and encompass changes taking place in the Polish agriculture, the definition of the agricultural farm has been changed. In accordance with the definition binding since 2010, agricultural surveys do not include owners of agricultural land who do not conduct agricultural activities, and owners of less than 1 ha of agricultural land who conduct agricultural activities on a small
Metadata updated on 24-03-2020	Data updated on	25-02-2025
	Metadata updated on	24-03-2020