

Statistics for the SDGs - indicators for regional priorities

Name of the indicator	4.G.1 Percentage of participants in classes in out-of-school educational institutions
Sustainable Development Goal	Goal 4. Quality education
Priority	Acquiring key skills at all stages of education
Definition	Share of the number of participants in out-of-school education institutions in the voivodship in the total number of participants in out-of-school education institutions in Poland.
Unit	percent
Available dimensions	total
Methodological explanations	The task of extracurricular education is to create conditions for children and young people conducive to the development of interests and talents, as well as to shape social activity and leisure skills. An out-of-school education institutions is an educational and educational institution for pre-school children and school-age children and adolescents. It aims to shape and develop the talents of children and young people, deepen their knowledge and skills and organize recreation. Out-of-school facilities include: youth palaces, youth cultural centres, out-of-school work centres, Jordanian gardens, inter-school sports centres and other specialised establishments such as young technician stations, planetariums, etc. A participant of classes in an out-of-school education institution is a student who takes part in permanent or periodic forms of classes in out-of-school educational institutions.
Data source	Ministry of National Education
Data availability	Annual data, since 2019
Notes
Data updated on
Metadata updated on	