

Statistics for the SDGs - indicators for regional priorities

Name of the indicator	9.B.3 Sold production of industry per capita
Sustainable Development Goal	Goal 9. Industry, innovation and infrastructure
Priority	Strong and intelligent economy strengthening the competitiveness of the region (Strengthening the mechanisms of innovation transfer in the economy and development of intelligent specializations)
Definition	The value of sales of products (goods and services) of industrial enterprises' own production, divided by the number of inhabitants.
Unit	PLN
Available dimensions	total
Methodological explanations	Sold industrial production is the basic measure of economic activity (i.e. industrial, construction and assembly, transport and other activities) of industrial enterprises and companies, i.e. economic entities classified according to PKD2007 to sections B, C, D, E. Sold industrial production is the value expressed in current basic prices, i.e. excluding the goods and services tax (VAT), excise tax, and including the value of received subsidies for products (goods and services).
Data source	Statistics Poland
Data availability	Annual data, since 2010
Notes
Data updated on
Metadata updated on	