

Statistics for the SDGs - indicators for regional priorities

Name of the indicator	2.B.1 Indices of gross agricultural output (previous year = 100)
Sustainable Development Goal	Goal 2. Zero hunger
Priority	Ensuring food quality, safety and food security
Definition	The ratio of the value of global agricultural production (at constant prices) in the year under review to the value of global agricultural production in the previous year.
Unit	-
Available dimensions	total
Methodological explanations	Global agricultural production includes all agricultural production in the field of plant and animal production conducted by economic entities regardless of the PKD section to which they are classified. It concerns individual farms (in national accounts, an element of the Household Sector) and other farms producing agricultural production. Global agricultural production includes: It is the sum of the values of: commercial production (purchase and sale at the market), natural consumption of agricultural products from own production (self-supply), increase in stocks of plant and animal products and increase in the value of the farm animal population (livestock - basic and circulating herd) and products from own production that were used for production purposes, e.g. feed, seed material, manure.
Data source	Statistics Poland
Data availability	Annual data, since 2013
Notes
Data updated on
Metadata updated on	