

Statistics for the SDGs - indicators for regional priorities

Name of the indicator	9.A.8 Intramural expenditure on R&D per 1 inhabitant
Sustainable Development Goal	Goal 9. Industry, innovation and infrastructure
Priority	Increased competitiveness of the region by increasing the research and innovation potential (Development of institutional potential for research and development, supporting cooperation between the research sector and the economy)
Definition	Total internal expenditure incurred in a given year for R&D activities conducted in the reporting unit, regardless of the source of funds, per capita.
Unit	PLN
Available dimensions	total
Methodological explanations	Internal R&D expenditures: Expenditures incurred during the reporting year for R&D work performed within the reporting entity, regardless of the source of the funds. They include both current expenditures and capital expenditures for fixed assets related to R&D activities, but do not include depreciation of fixed assets.
Data source	Statistics Poland
Data availability	Annual data, since 2002
Notes
Data updated on
Metadata updated on	