

Statistics for the SDGs - global indicators

Name of the indicator	3.8.2 Proportion of population with large household expenditures on health as a share of total household expenditure or income.
Sustainable Development Goal	Goal 3. Good health and well-being
Target	3.8 Achieve universal health coverage, including financial risk protection, access to quality essential health-care services and access to safe, effective, quality and affordable essential medicines and vaccines for all
Definition	Proportion of the population with large household expenditure on health as a share of total household expenditure or income.
Unit	percent [%]
Available dimensions
Methodological explanations	Household expenditure on health is defined as any expenditure to get any type of care (promotive, preventive, curative, rehabilitative, palliative or long-term care) including medicines, vaccines and all health products for all members of the household. Two thresholds are used to define „large household expenditure on health”: greater than 10% and greater than 25% of total household expenditure or income.
Data source	WHO
Data availability	Annual data, since 2010
Notes	'Estimated data, calculated by WHO'
Data updated on	24-07-2023
Metadata updated on	25-01-2023