

Statistics for the SDGs - indicators for regional priorities

Name of the indicator	9.A.10 Share of patent applications in voivodship in a total number of patent applications
Sustainable Development Goal	Goal 9. Industry, innovation and infrastructure
Priority	Increased competitiveness of the region by increasing the research and innovation potential (Development of institutional potential for research and development, supporting cooperation between the research sector and the economy)
Definition	The indicator determines the share of invention applications from a given voivodeship in the total number of inventions submitted to the Patent Office, expressed in %.
Unit	percent
Available dimensions	total
Methodological explanations	A reported invention (Patent application) is a solution to a specific problem of a technical nature, reported for protection to the appropriate office accepting the application, in order to obtain patent protection for a given invention. Source of definition: Act of 30 June 2000 - Industrial Property Law Place of publication: (Journal of Laws of 2023, item 1170). National procedure for reporting inventions for patenting (National procedure) - a procedure for all types of applications submitted directly to the patent office of a given country - from the territory of that country and from abroad under the Paris Convention of 1883.
Data source	Statistics Poland
Data availability	Annual data, since 2009
Notes
Data updated on
Metadata updated on	