

Statistics for the SDGs - indicators for national priorities

Name of the indicator	11.2.c Share of inhabitants connected to water supply system in urban areas
Sustainable Development Goal	Goal 11. Sustainable cities and communities
Priority	Supporting cities in dealing with sudden changes, crises, both socio-economic and environmental, and guaranteeing safety and high quality of life for inhabitants
Definition	Share of population living in urban areas connected to water supply system in the total population of urban areas.
Unit	percent [%]
Available dimensions	total
Methodological explanations	Information on water supply systems is derived from business entities that are providers of municipal services in this area. Transmission (main) water supply network - conduits supplying water from a distant water intake to water supply distribution network. Water supply system – a set of water network devices serving collection of surface and underground waters, public wells, devices serving storage and treatment of water, water supply networks, water pressure control devices.
Data source	Statistics Poland
Data availability	Annual data; since 2010
Notes
Data updated on	02-12-2025
Metadata updated on	27-04-2023