

Statistics for the SDGs - indicators for regional priorities

Name of the indicator	3.C.1 Number of physicians specialists per 10 thous. population
Sustainable Development Goal	Goal 3. Good health and well-being
Priority
Definition	Total number of medical specialists per 10 thousand population.
Unit	persons
Available dimentions	total, anesthesiology and intensive therapy, surgery, respiratory diseases, internal diseases, dermatology and venereology, cardiology, general practitioners, medicine service, neurology, endocrinology, diabetology, ophthalmology, oncology, otolaryngology, paediatrics, obstetrics and gynaecology, psychiatry, radiology and diagnostic imaging
Methodological explanations	A doctor is a medical profession that involves the provision of services by a person with the required qualifications, confirmed by appropriate documents, in particular: health examination, diagnosis of diseases, their prevention, treatment, rehabilitation of patients, providing medical advice, as well as issuing opinions and medical certificates. The performance of the medical profession is also considered to be the performance of research work by a doctor in the field of medical sciences or health promotion and teaching the medical profession. The regional medical council grants the right to practice the medical profession to a person who has obtained the required qualifications, completed a postgraduate internship and passed the Medical State Examination with a positive result. Data comes from the Ministry of Health and the Ministry of Internal Affairs and Administration. Status on December 31
Data source	Statistics Poland
Data availability	Annual data, since 2010
Notes
Data updated on
Metadata updated on	