

Statistics for the SDGs - indicators for regional priorities

Name of the indicator	1.G.4 Average income entitling one to the right to rent a residential premises in the municipal resources in single-person households
Sustainable Development Goal	Goal 1. No poverty
Priority	Providing housing conditions for the most vulnerable and socially needy groups
Definition	The average monthly maximum income per person submitted in the application, entitling one to obtain the right to rent a residential premises at the disposal of the commune.
Unit	PLN
Available dimensions	total
Methodological explanations	A single-person household is created by a person who supports themselves independently. A social housing tenancy agreement is a tenancy agreement for premises that are fit for habitation due to their equipment and technical condition, the area of which per tenant's household member cannot be less than 5 m², and in the case of a single-person household, 10 m², and such premises may be of a lower standard.
Data source	Statistics Poland
Data availability	Annual data, since 2022
Notes
Data updated on
Metadata updated on	